From The Editor:

Hopefully, you have dug out of the snow by now. How much longer till spring??

Speaking of spring, The Celtic Classic is rapidly approaching and hopefully, the list of volunteers is overflowing. Spring also brings the May show and another opportunity to support the club with your time. It's time to think about sponsoring trophies for the May Red Rose Classic and the pledge form is in this edition.

The time has come to hand the Newsletter off to someone new. This will be my last edition. It has been over 2 years since I volunteered to take over the Newsletter temporarily. It's been fun, but not without its challenges. Members contribute very little in the way of news, brags or photos and that to me, reflects the overall interest in the newsletter. With the internet and LKC website, the newsletter is starting to feel like old news to me. An infusion of fresh ideas and inspiration is in order and I hope that one of our creative members will step forward and take over the task.

One of my boys enjoying life with his new owner!

"He is my other eyes that can see above the clouds; my other ears that hear above the winds. He is the part of me that can reach out into the sea. He has told me a thousand times over that I am his reason for being; by the way he rests against my leg; by the way he thumps his tail at my smallest smile; by the way he shows his hurt when I leave without taking him. (I think it makes him sick with worry when he is not along to care for me.) When I am wrong, he is delighted to forgive. When I am angry, he clowns to make me smile. When I am happy, he is joy unbounded. When I am a fool, he ignores it. When I succeed, he brags. Without him, I am only another man. With him, I am all-powerful. He is loyalty itself. He has taught me the meaning of devotion. With him, I know a secret comfort and a private peace. He has brought me understanding where before I was ignorant. His head on my knee can heal my human hurts. His presence by my side is protection against my fears of dark and unknown things. He has promised to wait for me... whenever... wherever - in case I need him. And I expect I will - as I always have. He is just my dog." - Gene Hill

Dear Advertiser,

The Lancaster Kennel Club will be holding its 68th Annual Red Rose Classic All Breed Dog Show on the grounds of the Lebanon Exposition Center on May 15, 2011. We are anticipating over 1000 entries to this perennial favorite Dog Show.

The Lancaster Kennel Club has expanded our outreach programs over the past year in no small part with the support of advertiser in our Red Rose Classic Catalogue. Your support is needed to help defray costs in the expenses of this show allowing the Kennel Club to direct funds to further our support and education of the community as it applies to Pure Breed Dogs.

In 2008 the Lancaster Kennel Club participated in the distribution of First Aid Kits to all Pennsylvania State Police K9 Teams. We also hold educational activities such as Responsible Dog Owners Day, Dogs of Lititz and Meet the Breeds. All this was done in no small part with the support of advertiser such as yourself.

We ask that you help us continue this valuable outreach by purchasing space in our Dog Show catalogue. Below is a list of fees for space that have not been increased from last year the Front and Back Covers are sold on a first come first served basis. To reserve these spaced please call 717.669.2375 in advance. Included please find an Advertising Reservation and Submission Form. Please review the requirements for ad reproduction explained on the submittal form: you must provide Copy/Photo Ready advertisement including a check in the full amount. Please make checks payable to Lancaster Kennel Club with a notation Red Rose Classic Ad. Thank You For Your Support!
